EDUCATIONAL ADVOCACY

United Parents –Educational Advocacy

Advocates trained to assist parents with children ages two through twenty-two navigate the Individualized Educational Plans (IEP) and school systems. The goal is that the child or youth is able to benefit from the many supports and services available to achieve a meaningful educational plan that is just right for addressing their educational needs.

- Telephone: 805-384-1555
- Email: Info@unitedparents.org

Aspiranet - Collaborative Educational Services (COEDS)

COEDS is a program that provides educationally related social / emotional services to special education programs as determined by the Individualized Educational Plans (IEP) team. These students have needs that interfere with their ability to access their education and would benefit from enhanced services in the home that can include social work services and behavioral interventions to assist in meeting their socio-emotional goals at school. Additionally, the program may provide a Family Case Manager, Youth Partner and/or Parent Partner to work with the family.
